“The quality of dry cleaning Joe provides is very good, but what sets him apart from the others is the services he provides. First and foremost pickup and delivery. No more running across town to take care of the dry cleaning or even remembering it is done. This alone is worth every cent.

I highly recommend using Clothes to Home Dry Cleaning!!!” December 28, 2011

"I was watching Seinfeld the other night and Jerry had taken a shirt back to the dry cleaner because the shirt was shrunk. Jerry did not have a receipt, but all he wanted was for the dry cleaner to admit that he shrank the shirt.

Joe, would have not only admitted that he did, but would have reimbursed the customer.

In all my dealings with Joe, to include as a customer and in the business world of networking, I have found Joe to have the highest morals and values, which make him a person to which others should seek out to do business.

Quality, compassion, and integrity are all qualities that Joe exemplifies." December 27, 2011

"I started using "Clothes to Home" in June 2011 after meeting Joe at a networking function. His service has become my preferred and my only dry cleaner after seeing the personalized service, quality and detailed work Clothes to Home does on my suits and sport jackets. The idea of a dry cleaning delivery service is unique but Joe's ability to deliver as promised and on time with the dry cleaning is a great selling point. I would definitely recommend using Clothes to Home." December 27, 2011

Joe -

Just wanted to let you know how pleased we are with your service and workmanship. When you first called and solicited our business, it sounded too good to be true but you lived up to your word and then some. We couldn't be happier.

Thanks again,
Chief William Moffett
